

POINTS AT ISSUE

Character of Settlement Not Expected to Arouse Constitutionalist Opposition.

---

NEXT MOVE UP TO MEXICANS

On Warring Factions Will Rest Responsibility for Failure or Success of Peace Plans.

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 24.—Terms for composing all international differences between the United States and Mexico have been concluded. The conditions under which diplomatic relations will be resumed were embodied in a protocol signed to-night by the ambassador from Brazil, the ministers of Chile and Argentina, and the American and Huerta delegates.

The character of the settlement is not expected to arouse opposition from the Constitutionalists, who would participate in it, and, to a large degree, it would mold the adjustment of affairs.

When a new provisional government is established to succeed that headed by General Huerta, the result of mediation recognized as a triumph for Pan-American diplomacy will become effective.

Coincidentally with the action taken to-night, it was announced that the appointment of a Provisional President and the new government of the new government will be left to an informal conference of representatives of the Constitutionalists—Luis Cabrera, the representative of the Vasconcelos—and the Huerta delegates to the mediation conference.

TWO MEXICAN FACTORS

WILL TRY TO AGREE

No formal adjournment of the conference will be taken, but there will be no essions while representatives of the two Mexican factions endeavor to agree on the personnel of the new government and agree on the reforms and other internal problems. To-night's formal session of mediators and delegates prepared the way for the complete settlement of difficulties between the two factions in Mexico, growing out of the failure of a Huerta officer at Tampico to salute the Stars and Stripes.

The single outstanding proviso in the protocol for the international problem shall be declared adjusted on the establishment of a new provisional government. The protocol sets forth: "The United States and Argentina, Brazil and Chile—the member countries—shall recognize the new provisional government and that henceforth diplomatic relations between the United States and Mexico shall be "That the United States demands no indemnity and does not further exact compensation from the incidents connected with the patrol of Mexican waters and invasion of the country.

"That a commission shall be appointed to adjust private claims growing out of the revolution and international incidents."

AMERICAN DELEGATES

AUTHORIZED TO SIGN

The protocol was drafted early today, and its phrasing telegraphed to Washington for approval.

At 9 o'clock to-night, word came from President Wilson Secretary Bryan authorizing the American delegates to sign.

The effort to finish work on international points in the peace plan so that all might be complete before the be-

The sending to Washington of Fernando Iglesias Calderon, who it had been expected would head the Constitutionalists, and the representatives to-night places the issue not only before the representatives of the two warring factions, on whom they will rest their hopes for a failure or success of the peace plan, but also before Cabrera, Zuburran and Vasconcelos, the Constitutional delegates, are in Washington, and should arrive here in a day or two.

clusion in plans, but excluded some consideration of the subject, he believed, to-night that Calderon's mission to the capital merely was to substitute for Zaldarriaga during his absence from Washington the brother of the ambassador. Originally were designated by General Carranza to attend the mediation conferences.

There was little said here to-night about General Villa's attitude towards the sending of delegates, but it was believed he was in thorough accord with the proposition. Reliable information had been received that he would accept the result of the conference and it is not unlikely that he will be kept informed of its progress.

STATEMENT BY AMBASSADOR

PROTOCOLS SIGNED

At the close of the conference Ambassador Da Gama gave out a statement embracing the protocols signed to-night.

articles of the peace plan had been discussed, protocolized, and that these related only to the international side of the problem.

"We deemed advisable," he said, "to invite the Constitutionalist party to send delegates to discuss with the Mexican delegates the internal aspects of the problem."

It was decided by the mediators and delegates to postpone consideration of the exact date when American forces shall be withdrawn from Vera Cruz. The new personnel of the command of the new provisional government of Mexico, will be protocolized after the conferences between the Constitutionalist and federal delegates adjourn.

While the above conferences are in session, Ambassador Gamboa of Brazil, and possibly Minister Suarez of Chile, will take a short vacation.

assurances that the Constitutionallists would be represented at the informal conferences came direct to mediation to-day from Luis Gabrera, confidential representative of General Carranza in Washington.

---

CONFLICTING REPORTS

CONCERNING MISSION

Washington, June 24.—Despite many conflicting reports concerning the mission to Washington of Mexican delegates,